WORK EXPERIENCE

Attorney at Law and Tax Policy Consultant, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, 1992-present.

CEO and Founder, The Center for New Revenue., nonprofit tax policy organization, 2011-present, <http://newrevenue.org/the-center-for-new-revenue/>.

Co-Chair, Regulatory and Tax Structure Working Group, Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsom-ACLU Blue Ribbon Commission on Marijuana Legalization of California, early 2015-2016, <https://www.safeandsmartpolicy.org>. Commission Member, 2014-2016.

-- Traveled to California on three occasions to listen to the views of business owners and other stakeholders about cannabis revenue policy in public and private meetings, and to take account of their views in drafting the tax part of a report that laid the groundwork for the passage of Proposition 64 in 2016.

Consultant, Drug Policy Alliance, 2015.

Contract Writer, RAND Corporation, summer 2014-early 2015, Vermont marijuana project.

Advisor, BOTEC Analysis Corporation, mid-2013.

Adjunct Professor, UNC Law School, Spring 2006, Spring 2007, and Fall 2007, teaching third year tax seminar, Family Wealth Management.

Officer and Executive Committee Member, Tri-State Angel Venture Investment Groups III and IV, and WBP Real Estate Investment Group, Research Triangle, N.C., intermittently 1999-2011.

Adjunct Lecturer, MBA program, Kenan-Flagler Business School, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1993-2006.

U.S. Congressional Committee staff work, 1982 to 1990.

All three Congressional Committee staff jobs described below involved

- Analyzing current tax laws,
- Proposing changes to current tax laws,
- Responding to taxpayers' and Members' tax proposals,
- Participating in the drafting of statutory language and discussion documents for the Tax Reform Act of 1986 and other significant legislation that was enacted in 1982, 1984, 1988, and 1989.
- Daily “interviewing” of the kind the K 1325 contract requires -- listening to the views of taxpayers and of Executive Branch staff (Treasury and the IRS), and
- Evaluating those views and the feasibility of proposals – not only for economic impact and repercussions, but also for whether taxpayers could readily comply with the proposed law, and whether the IRS could readily administer it.
